Four Boodell & Domanskis Attorneys Recognized as Emerging Lawyers

Chicago (August 12, 2015) — Four members of Boodell & Domanskis, LLC, have been honored in a new list of the up-and-coming lawyers who best exhibit “exceptional character” and “outstanding aptitude” in their respective fields of practice, as determined by the top private practice lawyers in Illinois.

The law firm’s four attorneys who have been included on the inaugural list are Andrew J. Abrams, Elisheva Bernstein Cohen, Dainius R. Dumbrys and David Andrew Golanty.

In creating the first class of Emerging Lawyers, Law Bulletin Publishing Company, through its Leading Lawyers division, asked its highly selective group of the state’s top attorneys to recommend the people who would most likely lead the profession in the coming years.

The Emerging Lawyers designation is reserved for lawyers who have not surpassed age 40 or who have practiced law for no more than 10 years. Emerging Lawyers account for less than 2 percent of a state’s registered attorneys, and only professionals already identified as Leading Lawyers may select them.

“As our statewide surveys continue to show, the Illinois legal community is aware of the high quality of legal professionals at Boodell & Domanskis,” said Scott Anderson, director of Leading Lawyers and publisher of Leading Lawyers magazine. “It’s no wonder that four of tomorrow’s top Illinois leaders practice law alongside two widely known and respected Leading Lawyers, Al Domanskis and Roselyn Friedman.”

Alexander R. Domanskis, a co-founder of Boodell & Domanskis, was first named a Leading Lawyer in 2010. Based on the results of surveys sent to every lawyer listed in Sullivan’s Law Directory[®], he is considered among the Top 100 Real Estate Lawyers in Illinois. Roselyn L. Friedman, who joined the firm earlier this year, has been a Leading Lawyer since 2012.

Less than 5 percent of registered attorneys in a state earn the distinction of being a Leading Lawyer. In building that list, Law Bulletin Publishing Company conducted extensive statewide surveys asking: “If you couldn’t take a case in your area of law, to whom would you refer a family member or friend?”

Lawyers could not nominate themselves or any lawyers at their own firm. All recommendations must be approved by the Leading Lawyers Advisory Board, eliminating the possibility of lawyers being selected through a popularity contest.
